THE BUTCHER'S RESERVE

From dry-aged bone-in striploin to A5 Japanese Wagyu, each cut is selected for its provenance, marbling and depth of flavour.
Available as an exclusive upgrade to our two or three course dining experience at Restaurant 1309. Limited availability each evening.

All selections are served with House Cut Fries, Farm Leaves, Fermented Chilli Butter & Bordelaise.

Japanese Striploin A5 "Hokkaido" (200g) – $110

600+ day grain fed | Kuroge Washu | Japan

A true top-tier Wagyu experience. A5 denotes the highest grading tier, with exceptional marbling delivering a rich, buttery texture. Best enjoyed medium-rare to appreciate the fat melt and flavour.

31 Day Dry-Aged Bone-In Striploin (500g) – $55

330+ day grass fed | Angus × Hereford | VIC

Dry-aged for 28 days to intensify flavour and tenderness. The bone-in format helps retain juiciness and adds depth during cooking. Expect a firmer bite, concentrated beef flavour, and a classic steakhouse profile.

Black Opal MB6–7 Rump Cap (400g) – $46

380+ day grain fed | Wagyu × Angus | VIC & TAS

A standout for guests who want marbling plus robust beef character. MB6–7 provides a noticeably richer, juicier result, while the rump cap's shape and fat cap deliver a succulent finish.

Potoro MB4 Scotch Fillet (300g) – $39

100+ day grain fed | Angus x Hereford | NSW

A well-balanced premium option with consistent marbling (MB4) and a tender, juicy bite. Scotch fillet is known for its reliable eating quality and crowd appeal.

Potoro MB4 Porterhouse (250g) – $20

100+ day grain fed | Angus x Hereford | NSW

Featuring consistent MB4 marbling, this classic premium cut is juicy, and full of flavour. Lean yet tender, Porterhouse offers an ideal balance of texture and richness.
